5. Members shall discharge their duties loyally, faithfully, impartially and according to the Municipal Act or any Regulation, Rule or By-Law.
6. Members shall not use their office to advance their interests or the interests of any person or organization with whom or with which they are associated.

PART C

Public Hearing Procedure

Notice of Appeal

1. A Notice of Appeal may be filed by a property owner, an agent authorized by the property owner or an occupant.
2. A Notice of Appeal must be sent by registered mail or personally delivered to the Secretary of the Property Standards Committee on or before the appeal deadline date set out in the Order or Notice to Comply.

Notice of Hearing

1. Upon receipt of a Notice of Appeal, the Secretary will send a Notice of Hearing to the Appellant and to affected parties (affected parties will be determined by the Secretary), by registered mail at least 21 days prior to the hearing.
2. The Notice of Hearing includes the date, time and location of the hearing, and advises the Appellant that the matter may be heard and decided by the Property Standards Committee in their absence if they do not attend the hearing.
3. Property Standards Committee public hearings are held on as a required basis at the call of the Secretary, in consultation with the Chair. When called, the public hearing is held in the Council Chambers, Municipal Office.

Disclosure

1. The Property Standards Officer, who attends the hearing in support of the Order or Notice, will send a disclosure package to the Appellant, which may include the following:
 - A copy of the title search showing ownership of the property
 - A copy of the signed Order or Notice
 - A copy of the signed courtesy letter sent to the Appellant (if applicable)
 - A copy of the Property Standards Officer's notes.
 - A copy of the photographs taken by the Property Standards Officer.
 - A copy of any relevant maps, drawings or other documents
 - A list of additional material that may be used at the hearing such as additional photographs of the property
 - A request for disclosure from the Appellant including the deadline date.

2. If the Appellant has any material, such as documents or photographs, that he/she wishes to use during the hearing, the Appellant should disclose the information/document(s) to the Property Standards Officer in advance of the hearing, as requested in the disclosure package.
3. If either the Property Standards Officer or the Appellant brings forward material during the hearing that has not been disclosed to the other party in advance, the Chair of the Committee will recess the hearing to allow the other party to review the material. When the hearing resumes, the other party will be given the opportunity to state any objections to the use of the material during the hearing. The Committee will decide, based on the submissions of the parties, whether or not the material may be referred to or introduced into evidence.

Committee Agenda

An Agenda is available for the public at the hearing.

Legal Counsel

The Appellant may choose to be represented by a lawyer or an agent (who, in accordance with the Law Society Act and its regulations may provide representation), or may be self-represented.

Public Hearing

1. All Appellants and/or their representatives must sign in.
2. The Chair will call the hearing to order to ask Committee members to declare any conflicts of interest.
3. The Secretary will advise of any changes to the Agenda. The Committee will approve the Agenda and adopt the previous hearing minutes.
4. The Chair will ask the Property Standards Officer whether or not any requests for adjournment or Orders or Notices that have been complied with. The Committee deals with these matters first.
5. The Chair will state the municipal address of the property for which the appeal is being heard.
6. The Property Standards Officer will present its case first. The Property Standards Officer may make an opening submission.
7. The Property Standards Officer will call his/her witnesses. Once called, a witness is sworn in, either under oath or by affirmation by the Secretary.
8. At the conclusion of the testimony of each of the Property Standards Officer's witnesses, the Appellant and then the Committee may ask their own questions of the witness(es).

9. After the Property Standards Officer has called all of his/her witnesses, the Appellant will call their witnesses who may be the Appellant themselves and/or other witnesses. Again, once called, a witness is sworn in, either under oath or by affirmation.
10. At the conclusion of the testimony of each of the Appellant's witnesses, the Property Standards Officer and then the Committee may ask their own question of the witnesses.
11. The Appellant and then the Property Standards Officer will make final submissions. The final submissions should include what each party is requesting of the Committee with respect to confirming, modifying or rescinding the Order or Notice and/or extending the time for complying with the Order or Notice.
12. The Property Standards Committee may retire to deliberate in the absence of the public, the Property Standards Officer, and the Appellant. The Secretary shall retire with the Committee.

Decision

1. The Committee renders its decision on the matter in the presence of the public, the Property Standards Officer and/or designate and the Appellant. If Committee determines that additional information is required to render a decision, it may adjourn the matter to a future hearing date.
2. In its decision, the Property Standards Committee may confirm, modify or rescind the Order or Notice and/or extend the time for complying with the Order or Notice.
3. A copy of the decision of the Property Standards Committee will be sent to the Appellant by Registered Mail within 2 weeks of the public hearing.
