Ryan Teschner, Inspector General of Policing, Inspectorate of Policing
Stephen Leach, Director, Law Enforcement Complaints Agency
Special Constable Employers

On April 1, 2024, the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (CSPA) and its regulations came into force. The CSPA is an opportunity to modernize policing and enhance community safety in Ontario.

The CSPA requires police officers, special constables, the Inspector General, any deputy Inspector Generals, Inspectorate of Policing Inspectors, the Complaints Director, the deputy Complaints Director, Law Enforcement Complaints Agency Investigators, members of police service boards, including opted-in First Nation boards, Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) detachment boards, First Nation OPP boards, and members of board committees to successfully complete the minister-approved training (Thematic Training):

1. regarding human rights and systemic racism;
2. promoting recognition and respect for the diverse, multicultural, and multiracial nature of Ontario society; and,
3. promoting recognition and respect for the rights and cultures of First Nation, Inuit and Métis peoples.

The learning groups identified above have different timeframes in which the thematic training courses need to be successfully completed. Please refer to Appendix A for training deadlines.

The four e-learning courses approved by the minister are delivered online, self-directed (learn at your own pace), and available in English (French version to follow). It is anticipated that learners will be able to complete the training in under eight hours.

This training was developed by an expert vendor in e-learning that was selected by an evaluation panel comprised of members from a municipal police service board, First Nation police service, policing subject matter experts, and partner ministries.

- The Thematic Training (English version) is now available on the Ontario Police College Virtual Academy (OPCVA) to all police services. Learners with an existing OPCVA student number can access the training through www.opcva.ca. Training will be available on the main page after log-in.

- Learners without a student number can contact the Ontario Police College Registration office at OPC.Registrar@ontario.ca for assistance with setting up a profile for training access.

Requests for technical support can be made online at support.opcva.ca.

Thank you for the continued support to advance the modernization and continuous improvement of police services in Ontario.

Sincerely,

Ken Weatherill
Assistant Deputy Minister, Public Safety Division
Ministry of the Solicitor General
